Re: General Robert Hatton UDC Chapter 329 Donates History Book to Local Library

General Robert Hatton Chapter #329 Donates Book to the Lebanon-Wilson Co. Public Library

The General Robert Hatton Chapter #329 of the United Daughters of the Confederacy donated a copy of the History of the Tennessee Division United Daughters of the Confederacy, Volume 2, 1947-2016 to the Lebanon-Wilson County Public Library on June 16, 2017. Historian Pamela Annette Dies and Chaplain Jackie Underwood presented the book on behalf of the chapter. Accepting the donation on behalf of the library was Alicia Burnley.

The General Robert Hatton Chapter #329 was chartered on October 6, 1899 as the Lebanon Chapter and the name was changed on February 28, 1981 to the General Robert Hatton Chapter. The objects of United Daughters of the Confederacy are Historical, Educational, Benevolent, Memorial and Patriotic:

- To collect and preserve the material necessary for a truthful history of the War Between the States and to protect, preserve, and mark the places made historic by Confederate valor
- To assist descendants of worthy Confederates in securing a proper education
- To fulfill the sacred duty of benevolence toward the survivor of the War and those dependent upon them
- To honor the memory of those who served and those who fell in the service of the Confederate States of America
- To record the part played during the War by Southern women, including their patient endurance of hardship, their patriotic devotion during the struggle, and their untiring efforts during the post-War reconstruction of the South
- To cherish the ties of friendship among the members of the Organization
- Membership is open to women no less than 16 years of age who are blood descendants, lineal or collateral, of men and women who served honorably in the Army, Navy or Civil Service of the Confederate States of America, or gave Material Aid to the Cause.
